

WE NOMINATE

The Rev. Susie Thompson Titus, Associate Minister of Mount Pisgah AME Church and one of Princeton's most remarkable humanitarians, who for the past 30 years has quietly lived to the fullest a creed of service that has brought courage and fresh hope to uncounted numbers of the weary, the troubled and the confused.

One of the most beloved of the black community in Princeton, where she has been a member of Mount Pisgah for 37 years, and in Plainsboro where she lives, the Rev. Mrs. Titus, now 62, was the honored guest at a recent dinner at her church, receiving a rare outpouring of devotion that spanned the congregation, the Princeton community, both black and white; the Seminary, the New Brunswick and New Jersey State AME Conferences and the New Jersey Council of Churches. "She has had her hand in just about everything," said one of the speakers.

A woman of magnetic personality and charm, candid in her conversation and approach to people, and with a strong belief in the evangelical expression of the Scriptures, the Rev. Mrs. Tyson has spent her adult life as a servant of the Church. She was born in Cranbury Neck on October 1, 1907, the daughter of Clarence and Bertha Thompson. She was married to Richard Titus, and in 1933 at age 26, joined Mount Pisgah AME Church. Eight years later, licensed as a missionary, she began an unforgettable career of concern.

"Her devotion stands out over everything," in the words of Mount Pisgah's pastor, the Rev. Marion F. Stokes Sr. "If some distress signal is sent up, no matter how poorly she feels, she'll be in there trying. She can't say 'no' to anybody." Her call is a genuine one, reflected in her incredible ability to minister to the sufferings of others during the long, long years of her husband's illness and the toil that has been hers to enable her family of 11 children, ten of whom are still living, to survive during their formative years.

She began her first charge, the Mount Zion AME Church in Little Rocky Hill, in 1911, serving as its pastor for 14 years. During this time, she received, in 1932, her First Ordination as a minister and five years later, and by then a widow, her Second Ordination, becoming one of the very few women ministers in the AME denomination who have the distinction of serving as a full pastor. She was called in 1958 to minister to the Bethel AME Church in Metuchen, where she served with distinction for eight years. Next, she was pastor of Mount Zion AME Church in Skillman, until overtaken by illness, she resigned after two years. In April of 1968 she felt well enough to accept the Rev. Mr. Stokes' offer as associate minister at Mount Pisgah.

Through these years, the Rev. Mrs. Titus had — and still has — a special ministry to the migrant workers in the Cranbury-Plainsboro area, backed by the New Jersey Council of Churches. "The people call on her all hours of the night," says Mr. Stokes. "Sometimes even for counseling over the telephone." For many, many years a Marshall at the AME national conventions, she is as highly regarded by the church leaders as she is by the Mount Pisgah congregation, whose Rachael Conover Missionary Society worked tirelessly to arrange the dinner in her honor.

For her infectious courage and faith that have strengthened all who have turned to her; for her forthright and tender counseling; and for her deep piety that has caused countless individuals to say, "Pray for me," "Pray for my children," she is TOWN TOPICS' nominee as

POLICE GET SPACE
And New Equipment.
Princeton Township's taxpayers will move over to make room for the police.

On March 1, the Township's tax office will move into new space ($1,500 a year) in the Opinion Research Corporation building on North Harrison Street. Taxpayers will enter the 100 square foot of basement space by the rear door.

Township police will then spread out luxuriously into the rooms now occupied in Township Hall by the tax office. This will give the 26-man force about twice as much space, plus a spot right up front next to Township Hall's front door.

The move is a direct result of the $4700 police survey made last summer by Executive Management Service, Inc. Township Committee has been studying the Service's report since September, and revealed its recommendations at a press conference this week.

Two Recommendations. Providing more office space was one of the major recommendations made by Thomas Brennan, EMS staff member who did the survey.

A second key recommendation was a tightening of the administrative line. The police department and its Chief of Police, James Campbell, will be responsible to the Township Administrator, Joseph R. Nini.

The Administrator, in turn, will report to Township Committee through the Committee man who holds the Police Commissioner portfolio. This is now William L. Wilson.

In the past, all these relationships have been very broadly defined. There is no actual Township ordinance creating the post of Police Commissioner, for example, and his responsibilities have been very general, explained Mayor John D. Wallace, in discussing the report.

The lines of a police chief's legal responsibility run to the office of the Mercer County Prosecutor, the mayor added. He told reporters that Mr. Nini's additional burden will be offset by re-aligning staff functions.

But that extra space

To put in it, the police force will get a new communications center including a police console incorporating the present "hot" lines and expanded telephone service, which Chief Campbell said he has been discussing with the telephone company (the police now have only two telephone lines).

Also, Chief Campbell will ask the Federal Communications Commission for a second radio channel.

We're now on Municipal Services," the chief explained.

Police Pay Increased

A new police pay scale has been adopted by the West Windsor Township Committee.

The new salary ranges retroactive to January 1, 1970, will pay patrolmen $8,000 to $11,000, sergeants $10,700 to $11,500 and Chief Francis Maguire $13,000 to $15,500. At the same meeting, Ptl. Frank Cox, a former Princeton Township patrolman, was promoted to sergeant. Chief Maguire is a former lieutenant in the Borough police force.

In comparison, salaries for Princeton Township police are: $5 to $9,600 for patrolmen, or $1,350 less than the top for a West Windsor patrolman; $10,475 for sergeant; $11,750 for lieutenant; and $13,350 for Chief James B. Campbell Jr. Borough police salaries are comparable to those of the Township.

for police. The state police have to OK our application first."

The Township plans to hire a secretary to relieve duties from typing and other clerical activities.

But in the end, let's say ten minutes before he's due to go off duty and he's got an accident report he's scribbled and somebody's using the typewriter, and

"And typists they are NOT," grumbled Mayor Wallace, referring to police officers.

A photography lab is also on the list. And the additional space will make room for several of the report's recommendations, like a space for squad bureau and department meetings, daily activity reports, daily bulletin, and so on.

Also, the department will have a full time traffic safety officer instead of the present part-time one, and a new patrolman.

How Much Cost is estimated at $48,000, exclusive of rent paid to ORC. About half would be "nuts and bolts," Mr. Wilson said. This includes $15,000 for the communications console, $5,000 for the secretary, $3,000 for the new patrolman, $300 raise for the man who becomes traffic safety, full time; $2,000 for the photography lab; $1,000 for expanded radio; $1,000 for an additional squad car and $2,000 a year for something new annual physical examination for the men.

"We're looking into possible Federal money for traffic control," Mr. Wilson said, "but it's only one-shot money — for one year. The amounts of money available to us from Federal sources are very small."

He added that additional equipment would not be redundant if Borough and Township should consolidate. "But the Township is no longer waiting to see whether consolidation might come," he said.

Mr. Wilson, who prepared a ten-page summary of the report, said that all its recommendations had Chief Campbell's approval, even if he looks like standardizing home alarm systems.

Other recommendations include tightened disciplinary measures; tightened access to supervisory procedures; formalized roll call and inspection, a tighter moon lighting policy and establishment of a formal grievance procedure.

The report also asked greater emphasis on prevention and counseling in juvenile cases, rather than emphasis on enforcement.

Aside from recommendations like "improving community relations or strengthening morale," which we'll be working on all the time, we hope to accomplish these things — the physical changes within 1970. Mr. Wilson declared.

BUDGET OUT

Taxes? Up. On a $30,000 house, a Township taxpayer would pay $2 more in taxes and a Borough householder $2 more as a result of the proposed Princeton Regional School budget.

A budget brochure will be mailed this week to taxpayers. (See also pages 16 and 17 of TOWN TOPICS.) Public hearing on the $7 million budget will be held next Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of Princeton High School. Voting on the budget — and on candidates for school board — is Tuesday, February 3.

The Borough's estimated tax rate for schools will be $3.221 for each $100 of assessed valuation on a house. That's a rise of 5%. The Township's rate is $4.166 for each $100 of assessed valuation, an increase of 2%.

The Township has 71% of the system's pupils, and the Borough 28%. Current taxes and capital outlay are, by law, apportioned between the two communities on the basis of enrollment. Debt service ($398,700) is apportioned on the basis of equalized valuation.

Most of the budget's increase is earmarked for salaries, but these are still under negotiation. When a settlement has been reached, the school board will send to each taxpayer a detailed breakdown of the budget.

CENTER LOSES

Township Wins. Any plans for an expansion of Bamberger's or for a new A & P store must be subject to the Township's site plan review board. That was the ruling Friday from Judge Frank J. Kingfield of Superior Court. He also ruled that the site plan review board is legal.

Attorney for George Warnecke, owner of the Center, told the court that Mr. Warnecke spent $13,000 in 1967 getting ready for the two projects. The money was spent before the first of Mr. Warnecke's building permits lapsed, but it wasn't enough of an investment to free Mr. Warnecke from compliance with the Township's site plan review.

Judge Kingfield had said that if Mr. Warnecke's expenses were heavy enough, he might be entitled to a second building permit without site plan review.

REGIONAL SEWER?

First Step Taken. Over the anguished protests of one Councilman, the Borough took its first step Tuesday night toward possible participation in a regional sewer.

By a 4-2 vote, Council passed the resolution allowing the Stony Brook Regional Sewerage Group to proceed with engineering plans for the proposed regional project, and to apply for state aid.

The Borough is the second of the Group's seven constituent municipalities to take this action. Hopewell Township was the first. Four out of the seven must pass the resolution before the Group can seek state aid. Mayor Robert Cawley said the Township and Hopewell Borough might act next Monday.

The unhappy Councilman was Charles Cornforth, who pleaded with Council to wait for more detailed figures on what it might cost if Borough and Township split off from the Group and solved Princeton's community's sewer problems alone.

Allan Carrick joined him in the "no" vote, but specified that he wanted to delay for one month only.

Surprise, Council's action was unexpected. Only a few hours before, Mayor Robert Cawley had told reporters at his press conference that Council would hold off on action until those cost details were presented by Metcalf and Eddy, the sewer consultants, who made the regional sewer report.

But as Council opened Tuesday night, Mayor Cawley said "I am convinced there are penalties we and the whole Regional Sewerage Group will pay if we delay," and he quoted construction cost increases of 12-14% a year.

"Besides," he warned, "there's a line forming at the State for that money." The Group hopes the state will contribute 60% of costs.

But Mr. Cornforth was not convinced. He said that, with 60% state aid and bonds at 5% interest (both were quoted in the report), Borough and Township together would have a "payback" of $13,000,000. He defined "payback" as interest-plus principal.

If the interest were 7%, he said, the payback would be $18 million. If the state offered only 30% Borough and Township would pay back $23 million at 5% or $32 million at 7%.

"We can't afford to commit ourselves tonight, without finding alternatives," he stated.

Metcalf and Eddy estimated that costs in 1972 to the Borough would be $233,000 under participation in a Regional sewer, and $323,000, if the Borough goes it alone. Mr. Cornforth wants a breakdown of those figures.

"Pure dollars, however, won't be the determining factor in the end, and shouldn't be," he added.

State Wants Regional Plant. Alfred Sorenson, engineer and former Councilman, who is Borough representative on the Stony Brook Regional Sewerage Group, reminded Council that it was Princeton's Joint Sewer Operating Committee that proposed the idea of a regional sewer to surrounding communities in the first place.

"The state has been very lenient with us," he warned. "Our plant and trunk line have been overloaded for years. The state is lenient because they want to boost us to get this Regional thing going. Jadwin Cage and the new Mall building will overload our trunk lines even more. Besides, state sanitary specifications get tougher all the time."

He told Council that a small treatment plant, which Borough and Township might build themselves, to replace the present ancient one, would need all the "ingredients" of a larger Regional market, so that no money could be saved that way.

Borough Engineer Donald Harney said a new plant couldn't be built to serve the community for less than $5 million.

Questions of rate remain to be solved. If rate were based on floa, Mr. Sorenson pointed out, municipalities now less developed could be charged a minimum to equalize the financial burden.

He added that South Brunswick's population density (Kendall Park is in that town ship) would bring in a nice $50,000 a year by 1985.

Came's action does not finally commit the Borough, it was emphasized. The Borough can still back out when the engineering details are submitted. Actual creation of a sewer "Authority" would come later, Councilman James Andrews pointed out.

Mayor Cavley announced the appointment of Robert Harvey, Balcraft Drive as assistant to the sanitary engineer, Donald Harney.

The mayor also announced that Council's agenda meetings will now be held on the Thursday before each Council meeting at 8 p.m. Meetings are open to the public, he said.

PETROCELLI WITHDRAWN
Pratt School Board Orlando Petrocelli has decided he won't run after all for the Township's two year seat on the Princeton Regional School Board.

His name will still be on the ballot, however, because he made his decision after the deadline for withdrawing. He stated this week that he is asking people not to vote for him.

"I am withdrawing in favor of all the fine and eminently qualified candidates that are running," he said. "I have listened to them all and I find that Mr. Mager and Mr. Cruickshank cover the same areas I would cover myself, so I will support these two."

Daniel Mager is running for the three year seat, and Philip Cruickshank for the two year seat.

Mr. Petrocelli added, "I would also vote for the school budget. It is the responsibility of the board to prepare it and you shouldn't penalize the town by voting against it."

Mr. Petrocelli is the second candidate to pull back from the two-year contest. Last week, Dr. Warren E. Dodson announced his withdrawal, but he withdrew inside the deadline, so his name will not appear on the ballot.

Five people originally started in the race for the single Township two-year seat. Broadly speaking, Dr. Cruickshank, Dr. Dodson and Mr. Petrocelli are critical of the school administration while Burnell Sams and Mrs. Loren Johnston support the administration.

With Dr. Dodson and Mr. Petrocelli gone, Dr. Cruickshank has a clear, unopposed track. But Dr. Sams and Mrs. Johnston have to share the pro-administration vote.

Dr. Dodson entered the race early because, he said, there was no candidate at the time who represented his views. Last week, he explained that he was pulling out because candidates filed who did represent his views.

He cited Dr. Cruickshank and Mr. Petrocelli specifically.

Concert to Honor Martin Luther King

William Cook

Frances Gooding

News Of The THEATRES

Because Dr. King's life was devoted not to self, but to his people, because he resurrected an understanding and interest in Black America's literary and musical heritage, any tribute to him should be a tribute to that culture, that experience of life.

With these words, the members of Princeton High School's Black Students Union announce the presentation on this Sunday evening of their first Martin Luther King Memorial concert.

The concert will be given in Princeton High's auditorium at 8:15 p.m. Admission is $1 and tickets will be available at the door. The public is invited to attend.

Frances Gooding will sing a group of songs and William Cook will present readings from black literature.

Mrs. Gooding, who is the wife of Donald Evans of the PIIS faculty, has included in her program "Wade in the Water," "Honor! Honor!" "Come and go with Me," "Oh, Free-dom," and "No More Slavery Chain," among others. She will also sing songs by Duke Ellington and W. H. Handy.

Mrs. Gooding received her musical training at the Philadelphia Conservatory of Music, and at Temple University. She has appeared in opera and on both radio and television. She has received citations from the Philadelphia Board of Education, Drexel Institute and the University of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Cook, a acting head of the English Department at Princeton High School, has acted in Trenton's Theatre in the Park, H. R. College's Resident Professional Company and the Bucks County Playhouse Resident Company. He also lectures extensively throughout the state.

Mr. Cook and Mrs. Gooding began performing together last spring, appearing at Cheyney State College and filling a variety of engagements in Pennsylvania.

IT'S NEW To Us

MORE LEISURE TIME
And Hobby-Industry
Were being told by the crystal ball gazers that the 1970's
will be (among other things)
the era when many more hob-bists turn to cottage industry — or moonlighting at home.

Not all of us, it's true, although we will all share the greatly increased leisure time
that is apparently coming our way through shorter work
days, the Monday Holiday Law
and earlier retirement.

For many of us, however,
whether our hobby is tennis,
or cooking or decoupage, chances are that in the Seventies
we'll find more time to in-dulse it and quite likely find a market. This latter point is the key to the 70's
hobby picture — an up-dating
of the cottage industry of the days before the Industrial Revolution.

In the past few years, we've noticed in Princeton evidence of this growing trend. You may have seen the beautiful small boxes and trays with marvelous old pictures and trim on them — this is the art of decoupage that is experiencing a rebirth of interest.
Princeton's Decorating Shop on Palmer Square has
some outstanding examples made by a woman working
at home.

Wildflower Placemats. Or,
you've seen the attractive
placemats at Princeton Gift
with wild flowers pressed between two layers of clear plastic — made by a resident of this area. And at Applegate's artificial flower shop on the Square, you may have been

among the admirers of the exquisite Victorian arrangements of tiny dried flowers
displayed in minute pewter
and ceramic containers.
These, too, were made at home
by a skillful woman.

There's a Hightstown woman who embroiders snocked
dresses for a Princeton children's shop, and a clergyman's
wife who supplied Bon Bon Appetit with high quality frozen canapés.

And a college girl who par-
layed her interest in leather
into the small shop she calls
"Bags End," over on Olden Street. There are weavers who from time to time take on an assignment, such as lunchbox sets.

At the Now 'n Then Shop in Cransbury, beautifully made articles ranging from dolls to objects d'art are displayed for sale — most of them made
by retired persons.

The Knitting Shop on Tulane
Street not long ago sold a latch-hooked wool rug for a woman who decided after she'd finished it that it wasn't exactly what she wanted for her house. Another woman lover
it and bought it.

Galley 100 plans to open a boutique this spring — devoted largely to stitchery. It also wants to pay more attention to the works of the members of the Princeton Art Association.

The Lexington Gallery exhibits and sells only the work
of artists and craftsmen of the central New Jersey area,
and does so with much enthusiasm.

Many Varied Hobbies. Hob-
bists are speaking to clubs
on such subjects as photography, stained glass, antiques,
stamps, gardening and everything else, some far fees ranging from $10 up. Informal clubs are forming around such

leisure time interests as rock
climbing, photography, and ham radio.

If your interests lie in the decorative arts, such as needlework, stained glass, ceramics, mosaics, wood work or wood carving, enameling, rug
making, or if your husband
likes to make jigsaw puzzles
and birdhouses, there is a market for these things if you follow the advice given us by
a Princeton shopkeeper:

1) The work must be of a highly professional quality, as you are competing with the New York-Philadelphia market.

2) It must be either unusual, even unique, or meet an unmet need.

3) You cannot, often, make
what you want to make and expect to find a buyer for it.
Rather, you must know the market, its fads, its restless
seeking for the useful and unusual, and if possible be in the vanguard.

4) And last, you must be prepared for the fact that the prices paid for handwork and
art are comparatively low.

The Princeton community
offers an introduction into many crafts and decorative arts, whether you are seeking a pleasant activity for leisure time or a bit of moon-
lighting at home.

Over at Creative Crafts at 7 Spring Street, Mrs. Maryanne Caruso holds workshops
that explore a variety of artisanal arts. You can buy glass in globes or sheets and make jewelry, stained glass objects
and whatever else your fancy
wants to try in that medium.

Or resin to mold as you
wish, or decoupage, beads,
beadwork, even mother-of-pearl
in flakes and sheets. You can try your hand at candlemak-
ing, montage, plaster flowers,
paper designs and many other things.

Art Classes Offered. The Princeton Art Association is offering classes in the very basics of ceramics on Saturday mornings to the young people of junior and senior high school age. It holds an adults' graphics workshop on Monday evenings, introducing beginners to print making. There's also a Tuesday morning class in silk screen
techniques, and an afternoon
group on Wednesdays explor-

ing advanced printmaking. And for those who want to explore the wonderful things that can be done with simply paper, wood and cloth, the PAA has a pioneer's class for all ages on Monday evenings.

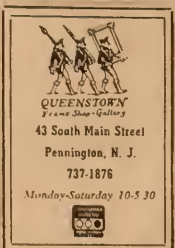

The Princeton Adult School each semester offers hobbyists an outing. This term it's the art of growing the small ornamental trees known as Bonsai. There's a workshop in woven rug and tapestry techniques, such as you find in the Oriental and Scandinavian rugs, and rather advanced tapestry weaves made on looms.

The Adult School also has a beginners' course in pottery-making, and an intermediate sewing group.

For those interested in antique restoration, Karl Ganser holds classes in his shop. And if you want to work on your own, there are kits at The Game Room to start you off on birdhouses, the racks bookends, cheese trays and bureau boxes.

In the Nassau Hobby Shop are beautifully sculpted lead figures of soldiers of the historic armies, ready for skillful painting and use in some unusual decorative item, and rockets to fly up at the Princeton Hospital fairground, and kits for mosaics, and beginners' leatherwork.

Our leisure time is going to be more plentiful and more interesting.

How Candidates Will Vote on School Budget

Seven of the nine candidates for the Princeton Regional School Board announced this week that they will vote "Yes" for the school budget. The other two are undecided. No candidate said he would vote against it. The tally:

YES — Borough:
Mrs. J. Stuart Hauser: "I will vote for the budget. It is a shame when budgets are defeated. This year, the teachers' salary negotiations create a budget situation we cannot change."

Dr. Henry Pawsoer: "I will vote yes — it's a very sensible budget, with only the necessary increases due to teachers' salaries."

Mrs. Robert Geddes: "I will vote yes. Most increases represent rising costs and not expanded services. The largest part is for salaries, and this is the way we can get and keep the best teachers for our system."

YES — Township — three-year:

Daniel Mager: "I intend to vote for the budget as proposed, provided that in its final form it isn't too far a field from the one published January 7. 73% of the budget is employees' salaries placed at a level necessary to maintain parity with competing school systems. Of the remaining 27%, 22% is essentially fixed-cost items. The small remainder is, to date, not entirely explained."

Township — two-year:

Burcott Sams: "I shall vote to pass the budget. It is a realistic balancing of the necessity to maintain the quality of education and the need to carefully limit spending. Salary increases are necessary to restore Princeton's competitive position for attracting the best new teachers."

Mrs. Loren Johnston: "I will vote yes. Salary increases are essential to retain and attract creative professionals. But I would like a more detailed breakdown of alternatives: why was one thing chosen and another rejected, for example? I don't like to vote on a package deal, and more information would have been helpful."

Philip Grubbschank: "Yes, I will vote for the budget; defeating it would serve no purpose. We must raise salaries, and if the budget is defeated and is turned over to municipal authorities or to the state, there is simply no room to decrease it any more."

UNDECIDED — Borough:

Mrs. Albert Binds: "I am undecided because I have not yet heard the budget discussed in detail. Matters such as administrative increases or increase in custodial contracts concern me."

Township — three-year:

Robert Bierman: "I have not yet decided. We don't yet know how much teacher salary increases will be. The board so far hasn't come out with detailed information on, for example, how many people on the administrative staff have been receiving how much money."

However, Dr. Cruickshank
took issue with Dr. Dodson
this week.

"I wish to give my own
statements on policy and position and not be branded by what others think is my position," he stated.

"I consider myself a middle-of-the-road candidate. I would seek to reduce the rapidly spi-
raling cost of public education,
but would not in any way jeopardize the quality of that education.

"I am in favor of change,
not for the sake of change,
but to meet obvious
needs to make significant im-

of all programs and policies
but only in an effort to be convinced that the programs and policies were the best available under the circumstances."

ZONEIS SAY YES

To Princeton Inn Conversion
Princeton University cleared
one more hurdle Monday night
when the Borough zoning board agreed to grant the University two conditional use permits to convert the Inn into a dormitory for 330 students.
In addition to including all the necessary bulk variances
and minor adjustments, the board tackled on two conditions. One, that a 12-foot strip along the Inn side of Alexander Street be dedicated to the borough in the event of the future
widening of Alexander. Township zoners had placed a similar condition upon the University.

Two, that an existing two family dwelling on the north side of the Inn be preserved
as a two-family home. The building, currently housing Inn employees, is 22 feet from the home of H. Kenaston Twichell,
A. Alexander.

Mr. Twichell was the only Borough resident to speak at the meeting. He asked that the board consider continuing the dwelling as a family use rather than a dormitory. The University had included the same and the employees' dormitory as well as the Inn
in its application.

Cut in Half by Zone Line.
The university needed two use variances because the main dormitory section of the Inn
located in the Borough is, il-
logically bisected by a zoning line separating an R3 zone
from a neighborhood business district. A dormitory is a permitted use in both zones.

The board also bent concerning parking. The University had to provide 40 spaces
in the borough, which it could,
but it asked for a variance
from the requirement that they
be provided on the same lot or within 400 feet. "We can provide the spaces easily enough," the University told
the board, "but we want the flexibility to provide them
within our peripheral parking scheme." The latter is a plan whereby the University requires its students and employees to walk to lots ringing
the campus rather than olog-
ing up its center.

Midway in the three and one-half hour long complex
presentation by Frank Reiche,
attorney for the University,

board member Roger Mc-Donough commented: "A paid member of the school
staff, she will spend one day
a week in Princeton in connection with the completion of
her doctoral studies, becoming involved in curriculum
activities in the Princeton
schools, and getting acquaint-
ed with the Princeton system. Riverside in particular,
the superintendent said.

"I don't think everyone is terribly happy about the situation," Mr. Ritchie replied.

Counterbalancing the Inn
to the community, however,
was the urgent need, in the opinion of university officials,
to admit coeds — a planned
650 by 1973. Jon D. Hlafter,
Director of Physical planning,
testified that studies indicated that the University could anticipate a drop in enrollment and a drop in the quality of students if it did not expand coeducationally. "Especially a drop in applications," he added. Because of the construction lag involved in building a new dormitory, the university could not expect to provide new student housing
before 1973, he said.

The University plans to house 330 students in the Inn,
the main portion of which was built in 1924. About 200 would reside in the borough portion of the Inn. The ratio of women to men in the Inn, planned by the University, is roughly two to one.

NEW PRINCIPAL IN JULY

Instead of Feb. 1, Riverside School's new principal will take over her new job July 1,
instead of this February 1, as originally planned.

Mrs. Dorothy Lammis has agreed to continue as acting principal of Riverside through
the rest of the school year,
said Superintendent Philip E.
McPherson, in announcing the shift in plans.

Mrs. Edith Scott, the new principal, asked the Board of Education to postpone her starting date for personal and professional reasons and the Board agreed, Dr. McPherson said.

She will move to Princeton within the next few weeks. Before she actually becomes a Donough commented: "A paid member of the school

staff, she will spend one day
a week in Princeton in connection with the completion of
her doctoral studies, becom-
ing involved in curriculum
activities in the Princeton
schools, and getting acquaint-
ed with the Princeton sys-
tem. Riverside in particular,
the superintendent said.

HOUSING PLANNED

For senior Faculty. A wooded cluster comprising 34
homes will be developed over the next ten years on Mt. Lucas Road for senior faculty at Princeton Theological Seminary.

The project, described in detail this week, will be up for public hearing before the new Regional Planning Board on Tuesday, February 3 at 8 p.m.
in Borough Hall.

The "Habada Housing Tract," as it will be called,
consists of 55 acres given to the Seminary in 1965 by William Habada of Mt. Lucas Road.

Development will follow the cluster zoning ordinance of Princeton Township, which allows a developer to group the houses so that wooded tracts
or fields can be left open for passive recreation like bird watching, or active recreation
like playing tennis.

The "Habada Tract" lies in the Township's one and one-half acre zone. Each house will have slightly over half an acre,
leaving about 25 acres of rocky, wooded terrain, plus a center common of relatively flat open space.

In addition, Michael Erdman
and Alexander Ewing, architects who developed the ac-
tage, have planned an 80-foot
subway from Mt. Lucas Road.
Houses will front on an inner road which will wind through the tract, so that backyard
depth will make the 80 foot

Lucas setback even deeper.

One access to the homes will be from Mt. Lucas and one from the Township's proposed 'A' road.

The Seminary will develop the parcel in much the same way that Princeton University developed its "Grey Farm" homes. A faculty member will buy a lot, then retain his own architect and contractor to build a house.

He will live in the house after he retires, if he wishes, and his wife will continue to live on the property if she survives her husband.

William E. Lawder, treasurer of the Seminary, said this week that the Seminary hopes to start building this summer.

CAR OVERTURNS

On Mercer Road, A small foreign car driven by Ronald S. Hemmel, 26, of Milwaukee, overturned on Mercer Road Sunday near Gallup Road.

Mr. Hemmel was treated at the scene for a laceration of the forehead but refused further medical aid.

He told police he lost control of his car on a patch of packed snow and ice and started to skid to the left. To avoid a car coming in the opposite direction, he swerved to the right. His car then hit a mailbox and

1,000,000 Bottle Caps?

They've only got 60,000 at Littlebrook School, but that's a start, anyway.

Miss Mary Jane Schomp, math teacher at Littlebrook, wanted to dramatize the concept of "one million" to her fourth-fifth grade math students and somebody hit on the idea of bottle caps.

It was like hitting the jack pot. One student sent a letter to TOWN TOPICS and received thousands of caps in reply, another used a magnet to extract caps from a soft drink machine.

Another got a bottling company in Trenton to contribute Party leftovers, door-to-door requests, posters all over Littlebrook.

And letters to family and friends abroad. Bottle caps rolled in from Israel, Portugal, the British Isles, South American countries, the West Indies, Morocco, Germany, Switzerland.

Now what to do with them? A mosaic mural is apparently the most likely possibility.

Some fencing, rolled over once and came to rest against a tree.

Pt. Mario Musso of the Township ticketed him for careless driving. The accident occurred at 1 p.m.

Ronald Jonash, 23, Hollow Road, Skillman, was injured Thursday evening when the car in which he was riding went out of control on the Great Road near Sunset Road. He received 10 sutures at Princeton Hospital in close a laceration of the right shoulder.

The driver, Ervin Keller, 33, of Hollow Road, told police he lost control while rounding a curve on the ice and snow covered road. The entire undercarriage of his small car was damaged.

Robert L. Curtis, 41, of Kendall Park, was treated at Princeton Hospital for two fractured ribs, after his car rolled out from the end of a line of parked cars into her path. Both cars skidded on the ice and were unable to avoid a collision, police said.

Truck Hits Bridge, Early Friday morning at 3 a.m., Clifton L. Elsey, 39, of Philadelphia, driving a tractor trailer, loaded as he approached the South Harrison Street bridge.

He told police he applied his brakes when he met a car at the mouth of the bridge coming the other way. The side of his truck struck the bridge.

He swerved to the left and then back to the right, striking the bridge a second time with the front of his truck, which had to be towed away.

Earlier in the week, a van truck driven by Vincent T. Pinarisi, 34, of Trenton, overturned on Route 206, 450 feet south of Cherry Valley Road.

Mr. Pinarisi told Pt. David Cromwell that he hit an icy spot, causing him to skid across the opposite lane where he hit a snow bank and turned over. He escaped injury.

YOUTH IS CHARGED
With Unlawful Gun Possession, Frederick Skipworth, 18, 19 Lytle Street, has been charged by Borough police with unlawful possession of a firearm. He has also been charged by Lawrence Township.

TAXES ★★★

The 1970 calendar year tax levy, to be determined in February of '70 is to be based on half of each oftenthousand year budgets, the budgets for 1969-70 (current) and 1970-71 (proposed).

The portion of the tax levy relating to the debt service of the budget is distributed on the basis of the equalized market valuations in each municipality.

1970 CALENDAR YEAR TAX LEVY

a. Valuations (Estimated)-	1242	3113
b. Valuation Ratio	28.52%	71.48%
c. Local Levy-Debt Service	$1,413,500	$3,942,700

All the real (current expense and capital outlay) of the tax levy is distributed on the basis of the numbers of children from each municipality enrolled in the schools.

PROP. DORE TO TEACH

Adult School Geology Course. Among the many and varied courses offered by the Adult School in its winter term, beginning Thursday, January 23, is an old favorite of the students, a one-hour course given in Princeton University Professor Erling Dorf, "Geology for Beginners."

The school will run for 10 consecutive weeks ending April 2. Registration in person will be held next week. For a complete list of courses see the 12 p.m. or 8 p.m. edition.

Prof. Dorf's course will be an introduction to geologic processes which have produced major physical features of the Earth: glaciers, oceans and lakes, origin of rocks and minerals, land movements, earthquakes, mountain-building and other volcanic phenomena.

A new 8 p.m. hour class will be a seminar on the Short Stories of Ernest Hemingway, which will be given by Princeton author George V. Packard, head of the Princeton Day School English Department. It will be an examination of the texts of Hemingway to explore the development of his skills and with its analysis of method and technique it should prove of great interest to writers as well as those who are interested in the general body of Hemingway's work.

Mr. Packard's book "That Grail Song, Sam. One More Time" was well received when published last fall. A graduate of Bowdoin College, he received his M.A. from Columbia and has had his work published in Cavalier, Redbook and Sports Illustrated.

Rockets or Remodeling. In the 9 p.m. one-hour slot are

Prof. Erling Dorf

Two new offerings that should appeal to many. Achievements in Space Astronomy given by Terry Matlack of the University will be a discussion of significant advances in rocket and balloon astronomy, from gamma rays and X-ray research to infrared and radio observations. These data will be analyzed with particular emphasis on their contributions in the fields of stellar and galactic structure and evolution.

Those contemplating change

ing the home in which they live will be interested in one called House Remodeling to be given by Mrs. Elizabeth Bloysman a member of the American Institute of Architects. It will cover the steps a home owner should take when adding to or altering his house: the budget, analysis of existing house, when to alter, add, or both. Illustrations and a description of the building process from site work through finishes, stressing use of materials.

A series of four courses for the High School Equivalency Certificate will be offered for those who have not graduated from an approved high school. These courses are designed so that with proper counselling by George Petrillo of the Princeton High School students will be prepared to take the General Educational Development tests.

They are given in English, Mathematics, Social Studies and Natural sciences. Each class is of 1½ hour duration: 7:00 - 8:30 and 8:30 - 10:00 P.M. Then once again there will be offered 2 special job training courses of 2 hour length. A Boiler Operation course which will provide the necessary instruction to prepare the individual for a New Jersey State Fireman's License in heating and steam plant operation.

SPORTS in Princeton

TIGERS AT .500
As Exam Break Halls Arise, ability to finish in first division - a feat it has not failed to achieve for the past 15 years - is in the personal goal of the Princeton basketball team. Off the difficulty they had in defeating a Dartmouth quarter, but, started four sophomores in Jordan Gym Saturday night, the Tigers may have their problems in securing a fourth among the top four league teams.

Shooting accuracy is deserting the Orange and Black, and doing so right on its home court. The Tigers were a respectable 46 per cent against a very mediocre Harvard quintet (which they topped 87-64) but created all sorts of trouble for themselves when they dropped to 40 per cent against Dartmouth. It took a basketball rally - a 100 per cent performance from the foul line - to produce a comeback from behind 73-64 transients over the improving Indians. In a highly unusual display, the Orange and Black sank all 19 of its free throws.

Yale, very much the surprise home in the 1070 derby, is playing well enough to be assured of a place among the top three entries. The Elis missed an upset of Columbia at New York by a single point (81-80) Friday, and will be extremely difficult for every team to beat at New Haven. Dartmouth is coming - 30 much so that it used only one. After seven tie scores in the senior and kept its captain early going. Princeton broke out of action the entire event out to a 30-21 lead as John Faye of the eight players Hummer and Jeff Petrie be- used were sophomores, and ran to dominate play. The they will inevitably improve Green was unawakened, however, as the season progresses. Off and Paul Erdman - one of sev- eral here Saturday, and among the lives paced a to move out to a six-point rally that gave Dartmouth a lead thereafter, they may well 31 to advantage with a nine sec- tion Princeton at Harvard on Sunday.

Defense the Difference. Ability to pare down Dartmouth's scoring as the game progressed led to force the Indians into turnovers and then the need to foul kept Princeton from being upset. The visitors were generally in charge of the action until the closing minutes, when the contest was reduced to a parade to the free throw line.

Dartmouth's last field goal was recorded with 7:35 to go, and Princeton did not hit from the floor after sophomore Bob Hyder connected on a wide court jumper with just under four minutes left. Thereafter, the home team went into a semi-fire, and the Indians had to resort to fouls in the traditional catch-up style that built last college basketball up to a 30-second clock becomes a part of the game.

By now, senior John Arbo last had replaced sophomore Reg Hird in the Princeton lineup, and his steady hand played a major part in the outcome. He hit on his first field goal attempt, then made a jump shot, then made a jump shot, then made a jump shot. He was awarded and when Hyder chipped in with a pair of jumpers and two foul shots, the Tigers began to open up the gap that made the difference.

Petrie led all scorers with 22 points on 11 field goals. Never once having a foul shot awarded because virtually all of his baskets were outside jumpers. Hummer followed with 17 on five field goals and seven fouls, while Hyder and junior Bill Sickler were also on double figures with ten a piece.

tus, Harvard is looking forward to a brighter future after 70 years of tail-gating in the Ivy League. Off its present personnel, however, the Class of 1973 will have to carry most of the load: only two of the current Crimson squad (junior Dale Dover and sophomore Matt Bozek) are good enough to match the top players on Ivy title-contenders.
The visitors shot a mediocre 35 per cent Friday night, trailed by 48-31 at the intermission, and made constant errors in the form of errant passes and ill-conceived shots. Even the poorest night in Jeff Petrie's career (1 for 9 and 4 points) had not the slightest effect on the outcome.
Petrie's temporary departure from the offense was more than compensated for by fine performances contributed by Sickler and Ryder. The former was 7 for 15 and a six-ling 9 for 9 at the foul line for 23 points, while Ryder was even better percentage-wise — 6 for 13 from the floor and 3 for 3 in free throws. His 21 points and Sickler's 23 were both career highs.

As they did the following night against Dartmouth, the Tigers showed good defensive play while drawing a minimum of fouls. They were charged with only 15 against Harvard and 14 against the Indians, so that the losers rarely had one-and-one opportunities from the foul line.
Penn State was on the schedule Tuesday (see page 32) and that contest will be followed by a ten-day exam break. Action will resume with a trip to North Carolina to play Davidson in an afternoon game on Saturday, January 24.

There was nothing really surprising that Brown, good enough to beat Harvard at Cambridge, took a 3-0 lead before the first period had ended. The shock was provided during the next 20 minutes, which saw the Tigers score five times while holding the fast-skating Bruins scoreless.
A tendency to rely on defensive hockey as the final round got under way cost the Orange and Black three goals, as Brown repeatedly outskated the home team and, by 7:12, had regained a 6-5 lead. A solo dash by sophomore Art Schmon, who scooped up the puck near his own cage and went the length of the rink to beat

The Brain goalie, created what proved to be the final dead lock at 9:05.

Through the last half of the third period and all of a 10 minute sudden death overtime, the teams battled without breaking the tie. Both came close to winning, Tillman stopping a tough, angled shot at the last second and Brown breaking up a 2-on-1 threat just as Princeton poised close to its cage.

As usual, the Tigers were outscored — 48 to 34 — but they had kept Brown from taking home two points for the first time since 1967. In addition to Schenck, senior Gordon Stollery got two goals, the others going to Bert Meers, Jim Tillman and Roger Kyle.

Earlier in the game, the Orange and Black scored first, beating R.P.I. at Troy but trailed, 3-2, going into the third period. When the home team had the lead, the final tally was with a minute to go, Coach Bill Quackenbush pulled his goalie to give Princeton a 6-3 advantage in skaters.

The move paid off with exactly one second left, sophomore John Hieburn lifting the puck over a prostrate goalie to cap a prolonged attack. Seven minutes into the overtime period, Hieburn provided the margin of victory, taking the goalie out and shooting right to make the first triumph ever in sweeter, the Tigers were a man short when they scored the winning goal.

Exams have overtaken the Tigers, and they will be idle until Monday, January 26, when Dartmouth plays here. While Cornell and Harvard are obviously out of reach, and very probably Brown, the rest of the league now appears no stronger than the improving Tigers, which means that a fourth place finish is possible.

PBS SIXTIE SHOOTOUT
By Princeton Freshmen. It's not often you can love a hockey game 8-0 and still gain a measure of satisfaction from the contest, but the Princeton Day School hockey team has nothing to be ashamed of after its one sided loss to the Princeton Freshmen Monday afternoon in Baker Rink.

Skating against the best freshman team the Tigers have had in years, unbeaten at this point, the Blue and White netted up against a bigger and stronger opponent. Although shutout for the first time this year, the Panthers' offense applied pressure continuously on the Tiger goalie, and just missed scoring on several occasions.

The freshmen scored their first goal about eight minutes into the first period and added another two minutes later. Three goals in each of the last two periods completed the scoring. Cars Reeve was in the PBS nets for two periods, and Tom O'Connor for the third.

Now 5-1 on the season, PBS will meet Princeton High School Friday afternoon at PBS. The Panthers have never lost to the Little Tigers.

The Panthers found the going considerably easier again at both Cranford and Lawrenceville, building up solid leads in the first period and adding to the score thereafter.

Saturday night against the Larries, the Blue and White got goals from six players in the generally good team effort, according to coach Larry Run-Miller. Robbie Holt, the only player to score twice, tallied first, assisted by Jim Rodgers. Soon after, Jim Rodgers skated in on a solo effort and had the Panthers ahead 2-0. A hotshot shot by Buzz Woodworth closed out the first period.

In a generally lackluster second stanza, Holt accounted for the only scoring with an assist from Art Mittnacht. Adding long to the cake in the third period were Sam Rodgers, Lucien York and a goal by Jim Rodgers, assisted by Jim Rodgers. PBS had 40 shots on goal, while Tom O'Connor, registering his fourth straight shutout, turned back 18 from Lawrenceville.

Jim Rodgers led the Panthers' scoring against Cranford, coming up with four goals. Fred Schuler added two goals and an assist and Sam Rodgers had three assists. Hieburn flout had the final goal.

CUSHMAN SCORES NEAR PIN: John Cushman, Princeton High School 136-pound wrestler, has Lawrence High School's Dan Goff in a near-pin. He failed to get the fall but won handily, 12-0.

Rulon-Miller termed the game a bit ragged; it was scheduled to expose Trenton the Panthers' first after the Christmas Holidays. Although in control of the puck was off, PBS nonetheless kept up steady pressure through most of the game, firing 35 shots on the Cranford goalie, Tom O'Connor had to make only 10 saves.

LAWRENCE NOTED
By PBS Wrestlers. At the start of the season, Princeton High School wrestling coach Tom Murray predicted that his squad would more than hold its own against Mercer County schools.

Thursday, the PBS matmen continued to make Murray an apt prophet as they rolled over visiting Lawrence High School, 49-5, in the John Witherspoon School gym. It was the Little Tigers' third straight win and fourth in five matches.

Next, PBS will tangle with two Princeton area prep schools. It will meet Lawrenceville Saturday at 2:30 and Hun next Wednesday, the 21st, at 3:30. Both matches are a way.

In addition, the team was scheduled to expose Trenton this Wednesday evening at 8 at Trenton.

Three Quick Pins. Against Lawrence, PBS recorded three quick pins. Mark Kahn, 96-pounder, pinned his man in 1:15; Bobby Araczo, 141-pounder, dispatched his opponent in 1:50; and heavyweight Lou John Rossi, the team's only undefeated grappler, flattened his man in 1:32. Maurice Pesbody, 157-pound entrant for PBS, had the earliest time collecting five points when Lawrence forfeited the match. Recording decisions for the Blue and White were Dave MacDonald, 6-0; Mark Evans, 5-3; John Cushman, 12-0; Larry Ritchey, 4-0; John Hdzies, 9-6; and Lawrence Parker, 10-4.

Hodges, filling in for Chris Mellow in the 160-pound bracket, garnered three take-downs to win his match.

The losers picked up their five points when Lee Costa, 130-pounder for PBS, lost, 9-6, and Tom Evans, 123-pounder, — Continued on Next Page was paid to a 2-2 tie.

In a jayvee match, PHS defeated Lawrence, 48-10. Lawrence forfeited six bouts.

PHS UPSETS STEINERT
By 6-3 Reverses "Our defense was very aggressive. We caught them on that; that's our bread and butter," said Coach Larry Ivan commented, plus a great job of rebounding. 24 to just 11 for Steinert, enabled PHS to surprise the visiting Soarants Friday night, 36-32. It was Steinert's 6-3 third straight win. PHS is now 6-3.

It was a good week for coach Larry Ivan's Little Tigers. The Steinert victory, coupled with its surprisingly easy 60-40 win over Lawrence three days earlier, gave PHS a good chance of making the post-season state tournament. It also brought recognition. PHS was listed 13th among the top 15 teams in the Delaware Valley area, marking the first time it has appeared on such list in Ivan's three-year tenure.

"We're shooting for the state tournament. That's our main goal, and the way we're going now, we're really starting to see it," Ivan commented.

Must Win 60 Percent. It is harder to qualify for the tournament this year. Previously, a team had to have won 50 percent of its games by the cutoff date, this year, NJSIAA officials have increased that to 60 percent.

This means, as far as Princeton is concerned, it must win nine of the 15 games it will have played by January 10, the cutoff date.

Morrisville Next, Ivan's club will travel to Morrisville High School in Pennsylvania. Thursday evening for an 8 p.m. contest. Tuesday afternoon, for its second and last afternoon game of the season, PHS will entertain Somerville.

Ivan reported that Morrisville is presently 3-5, having lost a couple of close ball games. Somerville, he believed, was 4-5. Could be, if the PHS defense continues to improve with each game as Ivan claims it is, that the Little Tigers could win both of these. The following week, PHS will play Hamilton, 6-3 now, and Madison Township.

Not as Close as Scare. The game with Steinert was not as close as the score indicated. With three minutes to go, PHS had a 34-23 lead.

Paul Riddell was the difference. The big PHS center scored 20 points — high for both sides by eight points — despite the fact that two minutes into the second period he had poked up his fourth foul. "We decided to go with him. We didn't want to lose our tempo or mobility," said Ivan. Riddell was still playing at the final buzzer.

PHS did it with only five players. Jeff Haring scored nine points. Bob Sweeney, four and Tim Taggart three. All three were blanked from the floor. Ivan cited the defense play of John Schmidt and Haring and Riddell.

Actually, PHS won it from the foul line where it had been notoriously weak. Against Steinert it converted 12 of 21 attempts to give PHS a 12 to 8 margin from the free throw line.

PHS Sets Tempo. "We felt very confident," said Ivan later. "We had scouted them three times, and found they liked to set the tempo of the game. They never came out of their standard 3-2."

"Instead of their setting the tempo, we decided to do it. It worked." At one point in the final period, PHS controlled the ball for three minutes.

The PHS defense was really something to see. Extremely flexible, it shifts back and forth between a man-to-man and zone depending on the position of the ball. It is also complicated to learn but Ivan feels that his players are becoming more adept, and confident with it as the season progresses.

Ivan also reported he is grateful for the team support. "We're getting big crowds at home. A lot of parents are coming out. They're becoming our sixth player," he said. "The ball players appreciate it and I know I certainly do." Maybe — just maybe — Steinert was the first ray of light at the end of a long, long tunnel.

HOME OFFICER PRIDY
For PHS Basketball Team. Opportunities of playing against a team of equal ability may not come often for the Princeton Day School basketball team this winter, as the Panthers face a rugged schedule with a largely inexperienced squad.

In the home opener, Friday, at 3 p.m. PHS should find its opponent, Academy of the New Church, a fairly even match. The game should give the Blue and White a chance for a win in a schedule that may not yield many more.

This Wednesday, the Blue and White was scheduled to go against a strong Hun five, with the result likely to duplicate that of the Germantown Friends contest.

Against Germantown last Friday, the Panthers were up against a quiet but with four veteran starters and an unbeaten record. The first quarter pretty much told the story with the winners jumping off to a 2-8 lead. At the half it was 43-20, with a 73-38 final recorded.

Germantown was able to get off 82 shots, while PHS had only 52 attempts, while suffering 36 turnovers. Carl Rosenberg was high man for the losers with 12 points.

The triumph was Germantown's fifth; it was the Panthers' first contest, after last Wednesday's snow forced the game against Mostertown to be put off. A second date has not been worked out.

HUN TOPS PERKIMEN
For First League Win. With
four players hitting double figures, Hun defeated Perkiomen
Saturday, 68-57, for its first Penn-Jersey League victory
where it is 1-0. Overall, Hun is 4-1.

Hun will engage in two contests on the road next, visiting Solisbury Saturday evening at 6:15, and Lawrenceville School Wednesday at 2:30. Solisbury is a league contest.

The Red and Black was also scheduled to entertain its neighborhood rival, Princeton Day School, this Wednesday afternoon. In addition, Hun's scheduled meeting with St. Anthony's last week was postponed until January 31, because the latter was closed because of the weather.

Hun outscored home team Perkiomen (13) in the first three periods and was never in trouble. At the half it was 33-21, Hun.

Mike Maguire led all Hun scorers with 21. "He's really doing a good job for us," commented coach Dave Leete.

Leete also reported that Perkiomen, son of the school's chaplain David Crawford, played red's best game against Perki-
men. Bill scored 12 points.

Dark Whitehead added 11
and Mike Rossi, 16. Leete said that Rossi, had come back from a sprained ankle and was operating near 90 percent of effectiveness. Lee Van Horn and Rich Zlotoff each had four points to account for all the Hun scoring.

Home financing, though it was outpaced by demand, shot up 12% to a record $10,297,191. Federal fiscal and monetary restraints were blamed by Mr. Boosier for the continuing depression of the housing market by light money.

IT WAS ALL MINI-SIZE
As Tigers Beat Penn State
 Before the smallest crowd in Jadwin Gym's short history Tuesday night, Penn State made the smallest score and had a most infinitesimal shooting percentage anyone could remember. A scant 2,500 spectators were on hand as the visitors had to struggle to make 38 points, sank just 31% of their shots and failed to put any of their nine players in double figures.

Princeton, meanwhile, managed to play its normal game which is not always easy on the face of unbelievably weak opposition. The Tigers, whose bench was cleared out after three in 77 minutes and shot a free 51% despite the limited action seen by their face, halfers.

The 11th year Lions, whose claim to be no. 1 in foot ball is fairly substantial, aren't even 101 among major colleges in basketball. One-time Fordham star Johnny Bach is trying to bring them back to the respectability they once knew but he shuffles his personnel in and out so frequently they really only seem to know each other on the bench.

State actually held leads of a point or two in the very early going, but after drawing even at 8:41 a.m. 6:30 game Princeton had doubled the visitors' out at 22:11 and many more than a way through the first half, and the ball game was about over. The half time score was 32-21, and despite the reserve lineup State faced most of the rest of the way, he could add only 17 more points. In the last 20 minutes, the losers' mounting percentage of 18 was a degrees colder.

PISIS Step Nearer Playoffs

Hopes for a berth in the post-season state tournament drew a step nearer for the Princeton High School basketball team as Tuesday as it trounced winless Montgomery, 56 to 21.

The victory raised the Little Tigers' record to 7-3 putting them well above the 60% mark required for entry in the championship bracket. Paul Riddell's 13 points made him the team's top scorer on either team to reach double figures, as did Larry Riddell's 12 points in 12 minutes of his squad.

Once again, the PISIS defense played a major share in the outcome, the losers never making more than eight points in a single quarter. At half time, it was 32-11 and an contest.

an ice weather. The PISIS with 22 and John Lamer with 17 played well under 10 minutes apiece but scored more points per game than the visitors managed. There's a return option on the schedule next week that is probably just a matter of it will be played at University Park, Pa.

PISIS SKATERS SPLIT

Oppose PISIS Friday, Dan McGuire, first-year coach of the Princeton High School hockey team, has no illusions about Friday's meeting with rival Princeton Day School.

"They'll probably be out of our class by now. Anyone who can shut out Lawrenceville, 7-0, must have some talent. The two schools will square off for the first time this season at 4 at the PDIS rink.

PISIS will enter the contest with a 3-1 record. It rolled over its first five opponents, blanking four in the process, before it ran a foul of a potent Princeton University freshmen team Monday night. The freshmen won that one, 8-0.

PISIS, in turn, has a 2-2 record. So far, after McGuire's totebage, the Little Tigers have managed to hold their own, but they cannot come any where near matching the superior depth of the Panthers, who will be a heavy favorite.

PISIS has split the two games it has played since the holiday break, defeating Hudson School, 9-2, at the PDIS rink Monday night and losing by the same score Thursday to Washington.

Against Hun, PISIS was forced to go with a squad described by McGuire as "half-out" but it still managed to get the job done. Sidelined by a back injury, Phil Matthews, starter, did not play at all, and John Weber, another front line player, saw limited action. Weber is bothered by a severe hamstring pull.

It was 2-0 at the end of the first period and 3-1 at the end of the second. John Holden scored two goals for PISIS. Added single tallies were the Fitzpatrick brothers, Hugh and Allen, Steve Sanford and Weber. Mike Tomlinson did an excellent job in the nets for PISIS, before getting away in the final minutes to Dave Donahue.

TUITION TO RISE

At Princeton University. For the third straight year Princeton University has raised its tuition rate. The annual rate and board costs are going up for the 1970-71 academic year. President Robert F. Goheen revealed to the University community last week.

The step was taken "with the greatest reluctance." Dr. Goheen said, and after careful consideration by the Trustees' Committee on Finance and the University Community Council.

Tuition will jump from $2350 to $2500, room rental from $170 to $330, and meals will cost about $80 to $90 more per year, depending on where a student eats. Thus college next year will cost about $270 more than it does this year.

The rise parallels a national trend: each year since World War II, the average cost of educational services in private universities has risen 7½%, according to the University's Provost William G. Bowen.

who heads the Priorities committee.

No students will be forced to leave school under the increased tuition. Members of the student body who demonstrate need will be provided additional support through the Bureau of Student Aid, according to the President. He added that the school has always kept tuition charges at the lowest practicable figure, and termed the new increase "absolutely essential."

COMMITTEE APPOINTED

For Hospital Trustee Nomination. Prof. John C. Whitwell, Hospital Treasurer, has been appointed chairman of a committee to select five hospital corporation members for nomination to the organization's 17-member board of trustees.

In accordance with the laws, names of additional candidates for election as Hospital Trustees will be selected by the nominating committee on Monday, February 9. Nominations must be corporation members, and the nomination must be signed by at least five members. Trustees serve for three years and are limited to three consecutive terms.

News Of The CHURCHES

UNITY WEEK BEGINS

This Sunday, the annual Week of Christian Unity opens this Sunday with an old fashioned hymn sing planned for 8 p.m. in the First Presbyterian Church. Dr. Lee H. Bratton, former president of Westminster College, will lead the service.

The week's activities are sponsored by a sub-committee of the Princeton Interfaith Council, in cooperation with the Princeton Pastors' Association.

Also scheduled is a lecture on January 21, by the Rev. Alexander Schmemmann, dean of St. Vladimir's Russian Orthodox Seminary, Tuckahoe, N.Y., speaking at 8 p.m. in the First Baptist Church on John Street.

The final event will be an inter-denominational worship service at 4:45 p.m. next Sunday, January 28, in Princeton University Chapel. Bishop Prince A. Taylor Jr., bishop of the New Jersey Area of the United Methodist Church, will give a sermon, titled "The Unity We Seek." Eucharist, or Holy Communion, will be offered in Roman Catholic and Protestant forms at separate altars.

This Sunday's hymn sing, is designed to enable all to share "the musical expressions of the Christian church, from gospel hymns to modern folk hymns." Dr. S. T. Kimbrough has assisted in the planning. The Mount Pisgah A.M.E. Church choir will sing, joined by the Folk Singers at Large, a group from Westminster Choir College.

Dean Schmemmann is scheduled to lecture on the topic, "The Element of Celebration in the Doctrine of the Creation." He is the author of "For the Life of the World," editor of "Ultimate Questions," and has written a number of articles for "The Ecumenist" and "Commonwealth."

$241,000 RAISED
By First Presbyterian, The Every Member Canvass at First Presbyterian Church has yielded $241,000 in pledges for 1970 from 711 individuals or families, an increase of $42,000 over last year.

The tally, made on December 28, showed that the average pledge was about 2.5 percent of income after Federal taxes, compared with the goal of 3 percent, according to the report issued in "First," the church newspaper.

Gerald A. Speedy, chairman of Stewardship Commitment, analyzed the fund drive:

"It appears that a sizeable number of our people have approved the decision about pledging from a new starting point. There has been a wide acceptance of the soundness of proportionate giving concept. We have made some progress toward our objective of moving away from an act of philanthropy to an act of faith and worship."

"Therefore, we may have achieved some dividends of better understanding, deeper faith and increased commitment—far more important than the financial results."

"By basing the campaign on fundamental theological principles, we seem to have changed the issues against which giving decisions have usually been made. At the moment of this decision, our congregation was better informed about the current work of our church than ever before."

DRAMATIC READING SET
By Christ Congregation, The worship service at Christ congregation, Walnut Lane, at 10 a.m. this Sunday will be a dramatic reading, planned by Mrs. Amy Bruckway and the board of Christian education. Members of the New Jersey Training School for Boys, Skillman, will be guests at the congregation at the service and at the congregational luncheon. Church boards and committees will meet briefly for reports following the service.

YOUTH TO MEET
In Pennington Church, The Youth Fellowship of the United Methodist Church and First Presbyterian Church, both of Pennington, are holding joint meetings this month.

This Sunday's program will center upon the film, "Phobia," which concerns the problems of morality and maturity faced by a teenager. On January 25, the film, "Incident on Wilson Street," will be shown. It is about a young teacher's effort to educate ghetto children.

The meetings are held at 7 p.m. in Heritage Hall of the Presbyterian Church.

BULLETIN NOTES
Witherspoon Street Presbyterian Church will hear the Rev. Philip Martin of the Philadelphia Presbytery preach at the 11 a.m. service this Sunday. His topic is "What Does It Mean to Be Called of God?" The annual meeting of the congregation will follow the service, at 12:45 p.m.

Charles T. Frisbee, Dean of Princeton Theological Seminary will present a second lecture in a series on the Old Testament at 8 p.m. this Thursday in the Princeton Jewish Center. The lecture, sponsored by the Adult Education Committee, is entitled, "Election for Blessing—Abraham."

The School of Mission will discuss "What Shall We Teach About Sex?" at this Sunday's session at 7 p.m. in Princeton Baptist Church, Penns Neck. Co-sponsors of the series are Prince of Peace Lutheran Church and Dutch Neck Presbyterian Church. Speakers will be Mrs. Winifred Voet of the Princeton Day School faculty and a member of the Princeton Committee for Sex Education, and the Rev. John Pilsner of Prince of Peace Church. The discussions are open to all interested individuals.

Sermon topics this week include "The Theology of Pollution," by the Rev. Bruce Cone at 9 and 11 in the Unitarian Church of Princeton; "Avoid Fattening Foods," by the Rev. H. Dana Pearson II at 9:30 and 11 in the Lawrenceville Presbyterian Church, and "Shalom," by the Rev. Dr. Donald M. Meier at the 9 and 11 a.m. services in First Presbyterian Church.

Dialogue worship at 9:30 a.m. this Sunday in Pennington Presbyterian Church will take the form of a chancel drama, presenting the closing scene of Lillian Hellman's play, "The Little Foxes." The theme will center on "there are those who eat the world and there are those who watch them." Mary Rees is the play director.

Jehovah's Witnesses have scheduled a weekend Bible convention January 30-February 1 at the Trenton War Memorial Building. Fred Mann is presiding minister of the

Warm Clothing Needed

A member of Trinity Episcopal Church, who works in the Wilson School of the Trenton School system, reports that there are many children without adequate winter clothing. Home visits to children consistently absent from school have revealed that they often don't come back to the school because they lack warm coats, shoes or hats. Children's outgrown winter clothing, in sizes 5 to 12, may be left at the church parish house and the church will see that it gets to someone who needs it very much.

Sponsoring group, the Trenton Central Unit congregation The program aims to offer practical instruction and to offer practical direction in the use of the Bible to deal with today's affairs. All sessions are open to the public.

PANELISTS SELECTED

For Jaycee Forum, eight panelists representing diverse groups within the Princeton community have been selected to participate in the Princeton Jaycee's forum, "Goal of High Moment for the 1970's," scheduled for 8 p.m. Thursday, January 22, at the Unitarian Church.

Named to the panel are: Mike McConnell, president of the Student Council, Princeton High School; Phil Siegel, president of the Undergraduate Assembly, Princeton University; and Mrs. Ann Erdman, member of the Board of Directors of the YWCA and Youth Concern Committee.

Also, Charles Streeter, First Vice Commander, American Legion Post 218; Mayor Robert W. Cawley of the borough.

Correction
There was an error of information in last week's story of "Federal Cutsbacks" at U.S. Schools $32,000." It was stated that "The Federal cutback has probably wiped out Wednesday afternoon projects for disadvantaged children (may for better lessons, for example)." The lessons referred to are those given at the Princeton Ballet Society. Last year the Society conducted classes for approximately forty children in the Wednesday Afternoon Program from January to May and is continuing these classes this year. The course for the program was and is borne entirely by the Society, which is a non-profit organization receiving contributions from its supporters for such purposes.

Mayor John Wallace of Hightstown; Frank Cooper, Manager of General Services, American Cyanamid Agricultural Division; and Dr. John Damaries, Research Leader of RCA Laboratories.

The forum is part of a week-long celebration of the founding of the Jaycees 50 years ago. The hour-long program will be followed by a question and answer period.

LANGUAGE CLASS SET

In Chinese, for Children, The Princeton University Chinese Club is sponsoring a Chinese language class for children. The preferred age group is from five to 12 years old.

The class will be divided into two sections: one section for those children who can speak Mandarin and one section for those who can not speak Mandarin. For the first section the emphasis will be mainly on character recognition and writing. The second section, for the beginning, will concentrate on teaching Mandarin speaking abilities.

The class is scheduled to be held on Saturday, Feb. 7, from 10 a.m. to noon on the morning of the day. The class will be held every Saturday thereafter. The first meeting will be held at Jones Hall, Princeton University.

The teachers for the language class are Mrs. Langlois and Mrs. Madeline Tien, Mrs. Langlois, who came to this country last September, had previous experiences in teaching Chinese to non-Chinese speaking students in Taiwan. Her husband is at present a graduate student in the department of East Asian Studies at Princeton University.

YOGA CLASS OFFERED

At Unitarian Church, Techniques of modern dance, yoga and mime will be combined in a new course to be offered for the first time in Princeton at the Unitarian Church starting Monday, January 26. The course will consist of the elements of modern dance movement, the various postures, breathing and relaxation exercises of yoga and the development of body articulation based on mime technique. The exploration of the human body and mind in these three disciplines will give the beginning student the opportunity to develop his own capacity for self-expression through movement.

Registration for the class, to be conducted by Judith Nielsen and Patricia Cline, is now being accepted. Mrs. Nielsen studied modern dance under the direction of Martha Graham, mime with Alvin Epstein and attended the Neighborhood Playhouse for Theatre in New York City. Mrs. Cline was a modern dance student of Antonia Munstock in Calif. and studied Yoga in California.

Additional information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Cline at 921-9165 or Mrs. Nielsen at 921-3349.

CONSERVATION IS TOPIC

For Scouts' Exhibit, Plans for a two-day public show called "Adventures in Conservation" will be unveiled by Pennington area scout units. The show February 7 and 8, at the Hopewell Valley Regional High School will include exhibits, movies and demonstrations, offering a viewpoint of conservation. "It's been predicted that the 1970's will be a crucial period in conserving our country's natural beauty and resources. The exhibits will demonstrate how all of us can help our environment to the fullest and improve it," said Kenneth R. Bragman, committee chairman. Exploring, Scouting and Cub Scouts Post 44, the key sponsor, and the Hopewell Valley Region Council in Mercer, Hunterdon and Warren counties. Participating in the show will be many area organizations. Tickets will be made available through most of these.
